

Backyard Produce and Community Garden Projects Partners

In March 2011, FFCC partnered with schools and groups to gather non-perishable food to share with families. The goal was to get food to families with school age children since they would be eating more meals at home over their Spring Break.

Our project successfully assisted over 344 families (or about 850 people) with food that would cover meals for approximately 4 days. What wonderful teamwork on a job well done!
