Dear Andrew,

We did it!!

Last weekend, over 3,000 volunteers from all over San Diego County gathered in the parking lot of The Church at Rancho Bernardo and packaged 530,000 meals! A shipping container was loaded on-site and is already on its way to Tanzania with the food you packaged!

Many thanks to all of the sponsors who made this event possible, including:

- The Church at Rancho Bernardo
- Dream Dinners of Poway
- The Home Church
- St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church
- SKS Petroleum
- Shuster Petroleum
- Village Mail & More
- HP Foundation
- Knox Attorney Services

Rancho Bernardo High School
EBS School
Qualcomm
US Bank
& many, many others!

Stay tuned for information on a possible upcoming event to package food for Sendai, Japan, and for a packing event in downtown San Diego with our homeless community!

Thank you, San Diego! Well done!!

FFCC Sends Two Teams to Haiti!

FFCC Haiti Teams #6 & #7 are gearing up for departure this week! Team #6 will depart this Saturday, April 2nd, and will concentrate on building an orphanage, setting up water filtration systems, and distributing food. Team #7, the FFCC Medical Team, will be departing one week later, on April 9th, and will be setting up a clinic to treat the neediest of the needy in Haiti.

Please keep both teams in your thoughts and prayers as they go to help make the impossible possible in Haiti!
